FACULTY OPENING (ASSISTANT PROFESSOR)

The Graduate College of Social Work (GCSW) at the University of Houston, one of three Texas Carnegie Designated Tier One Public Research Universities, invites applications for a full-time tenure track assistant professor. At the GCSW, our vision is to achieve social, racial, economic, and political justice, local to global. We invite applicants whose research, scholarship, and teaching advance the social work profession and contribute to achieving this vision. We are particularly interested in applicants whose scholarship includes a focus on critical issues of race and racial justice. Appointments will begin September 1, 2019.

QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Social Work or related field. An MSW is required. Applicants must show clear evidence of potential for excellence in research, teaching, and service. As stated above, applicants should demonstrate a commitment to the GCSW’s vision and identify how their research and scholarship contributes to this vision. The GCSW has a strong commitment to diversity in all areas and strongly encourages candidates from underrepresented groups to apply.

ABOUT THE GCSW: The GCSW is the largest graduate social work program located in Houston, the fourth largest city in the United States. Houston is an international and multicultural city, and the University and College reflect this diversity. The University of Houston has been designated a Hispanic Serving Institution and is recognized as the second most racially and ethnically diverse research institution in the nation. Our MSW program is ranked in the top 10% of all social work programs nationwide, and offers face-to-face, hybrid, and online curriculum options. Our doctoral program focuses on developing scholars that contribute to evidence-based social work.

The GCSW is located in close proximity to the Texas Medical Center, which includes the MD Anderson Cancer Center, UT Medical School, Michael E. DeBakey Veteran’s Administration Medical Center, and Baylor College of Medicine. This environment is rich in potential for numerous collaborative opportunities. Over the last 5 years, the GCSW faculty has secured over 20 million dollars in external grant funding. Our faculty are actively engaged in groundbreaking research and scholarship to address complex challenges facing society, reinforcing our long-standing commitment to social justice. We are the only college of social work in the world to have a Nobel Peace Laureate, Jody Williams, as part of our faculty. We are further distinguished as the academic home of award-winning social work researcher and #1 New York Times best selling author Brené Brown. As a graduate-only College, the GCSW serves approximately 470 MSW and 30 PhD students. For more information please visit our web site at www.uh.edu/socialwork.
