

Behavioral Health: New Challenges and Opportunities

Part of National Professional Social Work Month

March 26, 2019
9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

George Mason University (Fairfax Campus)
Johnson Center lower level,
Dewberry Hall

This event is in collaboration with the U.S. Public Health Services Social Work group and the Potomac Health Foundation. This conference will feature speakers who will address some of the behavioral health challenges we are facing such as mental health, trauma, suicide, substance abuse, immigration, self care, and more.....

Registration: $50.00 per person

GMU Field Instructors $40.00

Registration includes lunch and free parking in Lot K.

CEU's are available for $25.00 for the day

Register now: CHHS Marketplace

Mason students should register by emailing Mdavi7@gmu.edu.

Questions (conference content): Dr. Molly Davis, mdavi7@gmu.edu

Questions (registration):
outreach@gmu.edu