About the Speakers

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Sophia Dziegielewski, PhD., LCSW, Professor of Social Work at the University of Central Florida

Dr. Sophia Dziegielewski has a gift for teaching that receives continuous praise from her students and associates. Her deep knowledge and broad experience in social work comes across beautifully in the concrete examples, songs and stories she uses to communicate in her teaching techniques. Dr. Dziegielewski has a real talent in her ability to make complicated topics easy to comprehend and enjoyable to learn. Dr. Dziegielewski is also an affluent and prolific writer with over 135 publications that include numerous articles, books and book chapters.

Workshop Overview:

This workshop is designed to cover the basic changes, rationale and practical implications when comparing the DSM-IV-TR and the changes in the DSM-5 regarding social work assessment and rural practice strategy.

Selected books by the presenter will be available for autograph and sale after the presentation.

Presenter: Matthew Knight, LPC

For the last thirteen years, Matthew Knight has worked in education, public relations, and marketing for Mid-South Health Systems, an Arkansas Community Mental Health corporation. As a Licensed Professional Counselor, he has thirty years experience in mental health services, education, and consulting for individuals and businesses in Arkansas, Texas, Tennessee, Mississippi and Missouri. Matthew completed his bachelor's degree in education at Arkansas State University, a master's degree in counseling psychology and family studies at the University of Tennessee, and pursued post graduate studies in psychology at ASU.

Presenter: Mrs. Lauren Hannah, LCSW

Lauren (White) Hannah completed a BSW degree in 2008 and an MSW degree in 2012 at Arkansas State University. Between her degrees, Lauren worked as a case manager for Life Strategies Counseling, Inc., Southern Counseling Services (SCS), and Families, Inc. Since completing her MSW degree, Lauren has obtained her LCSW licensure and continued employment at SCS while also working at Mid South Health Systems.

Presentation Overview: Finding Your Passion

Taking the steps to create change, whether personal or societal, begins with passion. Lauren became passionate about change for mental health laws after an on-the-job incident that not only affected her life but also the lives of her family. Nearly losing her life lit a fire inside and through her personal tragedy she is campaigning to promote better laws.
