

SOCIAL WORK COMMUNITY DAY

March 30, 2015

March is Social Work Month

The Department of Social Work at LIU Brooklyn is celebrating social workers & the communities we serve through a day full of events for ALL students, faculty, staff & community members.

- 10am-12pm      Remnants of a Life on Paper- A Mother and Daughter's Struggle with Borderline Personality Disorder
Discussion with the authors of this important book, that chronicles a family's experience with mental illness.
- 12- 1pm      Pizza Lunch for BASW and MSW Students at LIU Brooklyn
Mingle with social work students, as well as faculty and staff from the Department of Social Work.
- 1-3pm      Working with Older Adults
As the Baby Boomer generation ages, the demand for professionals prepared to work with older adults increases. This panel discussion will highlight various ways social workers work with older adults in different community settings.
- 3-4pm      Spread the Word about Social Work!
Social work students, faculty and staff will hand out information on community social service resources, and answer questions about what being a social worker is about. SNACKS WILL BE PROVIDED
- 4-6pm      Working with Active Military Members and Veterans
In recognition of the service of our active military members and veterans, this panel will highlight programs and services designed to serve the unique, and changing, needs of this population.
- 6-6:30pm      Light Dinner for BASW & MSW Students and Alumni
Mingle with social work students and alumni, as well as faculty and staff from the Department of Social Work.
- 6:30-8pm      Learn about Career Paths and Interests of LIU Brooklyn Social Work Alumni
Come hear from a panel of BASW and MSW Program Alumni. What are they doing with their social work degree(s)?